Murray focuses on understanding client's key commercial drivers to implement tailored legal outcomes for their businesses and using his expertise to help them implement strategies designed to avoid and overcome potential pitfalls.

Murray assists clients with business structures, asset and business transactions, and corporate finance and mortgages. He also advises on corporate governance, regulation, compliance with statutory requirements and general commercial matters.

Murray is a graduate of the University of Western Australia in Jurisprudence (Honours) and Law. He was admitted to practice in 1990 and has many years extensive and diverse experience as a commercial and corporate lawyer.

He has held in house positions at the Australian Securities & Investments Commission, Westpac and St George Banking Group, operated his own boutique funds management and compliance legal practice as a sole practitioner for a number of years, and has worked in top tier and boutique law firms in Western Australia and New South Wales.

In addition to his legal qualifications, Murray holds a graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investments from the Securities Institute of Australia (now FINSIA) and has completed the requirements for a Graduate Diploma in Energy Law from the University of Western Australia's Centre for Mining, Energy and Natural Resources Law.
